Each on-line course listed on this page is approved by the Judicial Branch Certification Commission for continuing education for certified guardians. They are grouped by provider for convenience. A timeframe in which the on-line courses can be taken is provided.

Online Courses

- mmLearn.org Online Video Training

website: www.mmLearn.org

From the home page, click on "Professionals", then click on "Continuing Education" in the dropdown menu. Each course identified for certified guardians is approved by the JBCC for 1.0 hour of continuing education. 1.0 hour in ethics is approved for the training "Financial Abuse of the Elderly." The provider requires payment of the fee and a completed feedback form to issue a certification of completion. All approved trainings may be used for guardianship continuing education through June 30, 2016.

- Apollo Correspondence Classes

Website: www.professionalguardians.com

From this page, follow the prompts to enroll, read and test. A certificate of completion with the number of hours earned will be emailed to you upon completion of the course.

The following six courses are approved, through 07/06/2016, with approved hours noted:

- AIDS and the Professional Guardian, 4.0 hours, no ethics and no legislative update
